KILLER PUBLIC & PRIVATE SHOW COMMENTS

Knocking 'em dead! Great fun ... It was a blast ... I'll be back!
- Review in Orange County Register newspaper

The show is clever, comedic, and competitive. The script is hip and the actors cleverly improvise as they mingle with their audience. ... The characters put on a lovely show of light screwball, sarcasm, and sexually suggestive comedy, engaging the loud laughers and the shy ones, the 16 year olds to the 60-plus. ... If you're looking for a classy yet comedic adventure ... Killer Entertainment's Murder Mystery Dinner is the place to be.
- Review in Long Beach Magazine

The actors, gifted in improvisation, chat with guests between and during scripted portions of the show. While guests are never pressured to participate, many enjoy taking part.
- L.A. Times -

The show was fantastic with great characters and costumes. The actors were attentive, highly interactive, and brought fun & excitement to our celebration.
