COSTA MESA PLAYHOUSE PRESENTS NEIL SIMON'S CLASSIC COMEDY
*THE ODD COUPLE

August 6- August 29, 2010

Directed by Michael Serna

COSTA MESA, CA – July 27, 2010 – Neil Simon's masterpiece, The Odd Couple, open August 6 and runs through August 29 at the Costa Mesa Playhouse.

On the verge of suicide after being thrown out by his wife, compulsive neatnik Felix Unger moves in with his recently divorced poker buddy, Oscar Madison, an incorrigibly sloppy sportswriter. Within a few hot, sweltering, New York days, this mismatched pair is on the verge of mutual murder: Felix cannot abide Oscar's slovenliness, while Oscar is driven insane by Felix's obsession with cleanliness and his sabotaging of a potential love connection with the cookoo Pigeon sisters.

Featuring a cast of Orange County theater veterans, The Odd Couple stars Shaun Leslie Thomas and PJ Sarro as the mismatched roommates, supported by Travis Stolp, Jeff Bickel, Ed Chen and Stefan Marchand as their poker buddies, and Darcy Porter and Brigette O'Leary as the Pigeon sisters.
