"We are delighted to offer this unique opportunity for our most discriminating guests to enjoy our very best in accommodations and amenities, along with world-class shopping, refreshing wine, a free gift and more," said Trine Ackelman, director of sales and marketing of the Westin South Coast Plaza.

Conveniently situated in Orange County's commercial and cultural center, The Westin is one of the area's most popular hotels for business and leisure travelers. Each suite features a contemporary design in warm colors. An expansive living area with plush armchairs surrounding a deluxe ottoman creates a stylish spot for sipping cocktails prepared at the wet bar. The suite also offers a dining table that accommodates six and a 55-inch LED flat screen TV.

Inside the private bedroom is the world-renowned, king-sized Heavenly® Bed—an oasis of lush sheets, down duvets, a generous collection of pillows, and the patented pillow-top mattress. The adjacent master bathroom features the Heavenly® Bath, a spa-like shower experience. Also offered are the signature Westin White Tea Heavenly™ Bath Amenities, a plush bathrobe, and slippers. The suite also includes a guest bath.

The Westin South Coast Plaza is considered to be Orange County's landmark hotel and is the only premiere Westin property in the county. It features 394 spacious guestrooms and 35,000 square feet of unique indoor and outdoor meeting space that can accommodate up to 600 participants banquet style. The unique Terrace Level offers a relaxing outdoor space ideal for wedding and gala events, plus an outdoor gazebo specifically designed for wedding ceremonies and themed events.

Located at 686 Anton Boulevard in Costa Mesa, California, The Westin is adjacent to South Coast Plaza, the renowned international shopping and dining destination celebrating its 50th anniversary in 2017. With a unique mix of more than 250 luxury and fashion boutiques and 30 restaurants, South Coast Plaza offers the ultimate retail experience.
