

Sundays FREE in Costa Mesa

Sunday nights are free when included in a minimum three-nights hotel stay

Costa Mesa, Calif. – Sept. 14, 2015 – Experience Southern California this fall with a free night stay in Costa Mesa. Beginning Sept. 14 through Nov. 29, stay a minimum of three consecutive nights that include Sunday night and Sunday night is free. Guests of participating hotels will not be charged for the Sunday night accommodation that precedes, follows, or falls within those three consecutive nights.

A stay in Costa Mesa, located within Orange County, puts visitors within minutes of some of Southern California's top attractions. Peruse California's largest and most prestigious shopping destination, the world-renowned South Coast Plaza, or wander through the outdoor boutique districts, The LAB, The CAMP and The OC Mix. See award-winning musicals in Costa Mesa's nationally acclaimed Segerstrom Center for the Arts, which is scheduled to host the Tony Award®-winning Disney's The Lion King from Oct. 6 to Nov. 1, among other performances. Or hop aboard round-trip shuttle transportation from participating hotels to the nearby Disneyland® Resort and enjoy a day of play at The Happiest Place on Earth.

Costa Mesa's Stay 3, Get Sunday Free offer is valid with select partner hotels from Sept. 14 through Nov. 29. Offer only applies when two or more consecutive days immediately follow or lead up to Sunday. Restrictions apply at each hotel and accommodations are based on availability at time of booking.
